13. Publicity and Social Media/Casey Weismantel – nothing to report currently.

14. Old Business

1. Sno Plainsman Article due for December will be written by Cheryl and Matt. January article volunteer is needed.
2. Update to adding payment forms on the website – These options are not on the website currently. This is something that has been requested for 3 or more months
3. Paid Aberdeen Driftbusters Memberships and Association Membership Dues for services as trade for services - Discussed issue of providing free memberships for work that is not being completed on the website. President Rohrbach will call the member in question to inquire about the work that needs to be done. He will report back to the club next month.
4. Discussion regarding utilizing Zoom for the Safety Course. It was decided to not hold the safety course this year while options for online are explored

15. New Business

- 1- January Meeting location- (January 7th at 7:30pm) – Richmond Lake Oasis.
- 2- A member asked if it would be possible to have a zoom link for the meetings. Concerns were discussed about having zoom participants during a live meeting. Lack of reliable internet and technical issues would make this impossible.
- 3- Club Rides - Will be discussed at next meeting depending upon snowfall. Discussed option of having a weekly poker run on Saturdays for $20/hand. Will be discussed further at next meeting.

16. Adjourn Meeting – Motion: Casey Weismantel. Second by Joey Nagel. Motion carried.
