6. SDSA Report/Kelly Weaver – SDSA convention held in Rapid City December 4-5 was a success. Auction raised most funds in several years. Virtual options were available for meetings and award interviews. Trail tools were discussed including a tool for a hammer drill for putting in posts and a free Google tool for plotting out trail and noting placement of all markers. Pat McCoy was selected Groom of the Year and the Pat McCoy family received Family of the Year. Driftbusters received Largest Club Award. Upcoming events include Veterans Ride, January 16; Deadwood SnoCross, Jan 29-30; Governors Ride, February 13.
7. Advisory Report/Al Nagel – Jeff Tomac has been named the new Black Hills National Forest supervisor. Trail #7 has been closed till new snow arrives since there is too many UTV's on the trail right now. Trail 5 into Deadwood has been removed this year. All tornado damage in Spearfish Canyon trails has been cleaned up. Next Board meeting will be Feb 12 at 6pm at the Spearfish Holiday Inn followed by the SDSA Board meeting.
8. Trail Report/Jim Weaver – The groomer maintenance has been done and now we need snow. Watch the trail for any signs that need replacing.
9. Yeti Report/ – Kelly reported that the YETIS presented an idea for an online snowmobile safety course at the SDSA convention. They will work with GFP since they have identified a vendor who also does South Dakota's online hunter safety course.
